TOPIC

Veterans Returning Home

As more veterans return from Iraq, Afghanistan and other global military bases many organizations are recognizing a unique leadership style. Jason Hale will share his experiences in the Middle-East and the leadership he learned while stationed there. His story includes leadership, customer service, and teamwork designed to help HR professionals understand specific ways to integrate and develop our returning veterans. Garth E. Wootten, Division Manager of Oakland County Veterans' Services will also provide attendees with helpful tips and a listing of the various services that are available for veterans that are returning home.

You will learn:

- The difference between military leadership and corporate leadership
- Best practices in interviewing, hiring, and developing veterans
- How to minimize conflict between veterans and non-veterans
- How to embrace Islamic employees and make them feel welcome in your organization

Thursday, January 21, 2010!

What:
Monthly Diversity
Educational Forum Series

Join the Oakland County Employment Diversity Council (OCEDC), as we present Veterans Returning Home. During this session we will have a presentation and discussion about the various services available to veterans and how to integrate and develop our returning soldiers.

When:
January 21, 2010
1:00pm - 3:00pm

Once a month, the OCEDC features a speaker or a performance depicting the rich cultural diversity within our community. A sculptor and artist, dance groups, speakers on Asian heritage, Black history, Native American history, Sikh identity and various other cultural topics are presented. "The Monthly Diversity Educational Forum Series" is about learning, growing, and networking together.

Where:
Oakland County
Executive Office
Building 41 West –
Conference Center
2100 Pontiac Lake
Rd., Waterford, MI
48328

The Monthly Diversity Educational Forum Series is designed to assist human resource professionals, diversity managers, and all levels of leaders and supervisors to develop and implement organizational leadership solutions, personal diversity solutions, and public solutions to move toward full productivity throughout their workforce.
