TOPIC:

What Makes Diversity Training Effective

SPEAKERS:

Christine Evans

Senior Staffing Professional with Oakwood Healthcare System

Karen DeCuir-DiNicola

Manager Diversity Initiatives GM

Christine Evans started a Diversity Program at Oakwood Hospital and Medical Center in Dearborn. Although the hospital had offered diversity education to management, Christine's program was developed to teach diversity and inclusion across all levels of employees. She will share with us how she found success in a program that is producing such great results it is being spread to other Oakwood facilities. Karen DeCuir-DiNicola will discuss the various aspects of diversity program planning, development and implementation with a focus on Employee Affinity Groups.

Learning Objectives:

- Procedure to build a new diversity program or rejuvenate an existing one
- Ways to overcome obstacles and barriers to inclusion
- Tips for connecting employees to diversity awareness
- Remaining passionate and enthusiastic as a training program goes from development to deployment
- How to start an effective Affinity Group and make it work

Thursday, March 18, 2010!

What:
Monthly Diversity
Educational
Forum Series

Join the Oakland County Employment Diversity Council (OCEDC), as we present What Makes Diversity Training Effective. During this session we will have a presentation and discussion about what makes diversity and inclusion training programs effective and the role of employee affinity groups.
