The Monthly Diversity Educational Forum Series (Native-American Heritage Month)

TOPIC

Networking To Ensure Personal & Business Success

SPEAKERS

Terry Bean

Charlie Wollberg

Jackie Gant

Terry Bean of Networked Incorporated will share his experiences as a Native American in today's business world. His ancestry has taught him the importance of networking with others and building relationships. Terry will be joined by Charlie Wollberg as they show us the keys to successfully networking as a foundation for ensuring personal and business success. Together Terry and Charlie have developed Motor City Connect. With over 1,800 members in the Detroit area it is one of the nation's largest hybrid online/face-to-face networking groups.

Jackie Gant – (National Executive Director of the Native American Business Alliance - Oneida Nation of the Thames) will join us and discuss the diversified Native American businesses that operate throughout the region. Jackie will provide insight on how to locate Native American businesses in order to diversify your supplier base. She will also detail the three (3) most important ways to make Native Americans feel more welcome in the workplace!
